ABOUT

How many beautiful Russian teenagers do you know who have great recording voices? We were lucky to discover one such gem in Karisha. Here she is, in her own words:

"Hi, I'm Karisha and I'm 17 years old. I've loved music ever since I can remember, but I got really serious about it three years ago, when I was offered a long-term production deal with MMI Studios. Since then, my Russian accent has mellowed out a lot and today you can barely hear it in my songs. I love singing bouncy pop/dance tracks, but I also enjoy Blues, Rock and R&B and I have recorded a bunch of original songs in these various styles.

Imagine my shock when it turned out that DJL Management London has decided to take me on, following substantial label interest. How insanely cool is that!

I've always been very ambitious and driven. I thrive on setting and achieving goals, and I always try to be the best I can be, whether it's academically or artistically. And I manage to keep myself busy at all times too. I have a lot of parallel interests and talents in different areas: from economics to biology, from sports to fashion, from design to modelling.

Walt Disney once said: 'All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them'. My biggest dream is to have a meaningful career in music, and with the help of my mentors at DJL and MMI, I'm ready to discover who I am and what I can become."

Karisha has a striking and easily identifiable vocal and a great stage presence and energy. She's the classic case of East Meets West - and something tells us that this mix can become quite explosive.

PROOF OF CONCEPT

We've kept Karisha "under wraps" throughout most of her development with us, waiting for the right moment to unveil her to the world.

Recently we decided to make a handful of her recordings public, to a small group of friends, and only for a few days. The reaction - with no hype or pushing - was very promising. Each song clocked up thousands of shares and likes on YouTube - without us lifting a finger.

TESTIMONIALS

Karisha is an amazing new young vocalist, making great records, and is gonna be big in 2018!.

ROB DAVIS

(Grammy-winning songwriter with over 30 top 10 hits to his credit)

I was listening to Tears In The Rain. Just wanted to say that I think Karisha is very talented. Great job.

MICHEL BEUGEL

(Head of Soundz Good Media, a powerful dance label.)

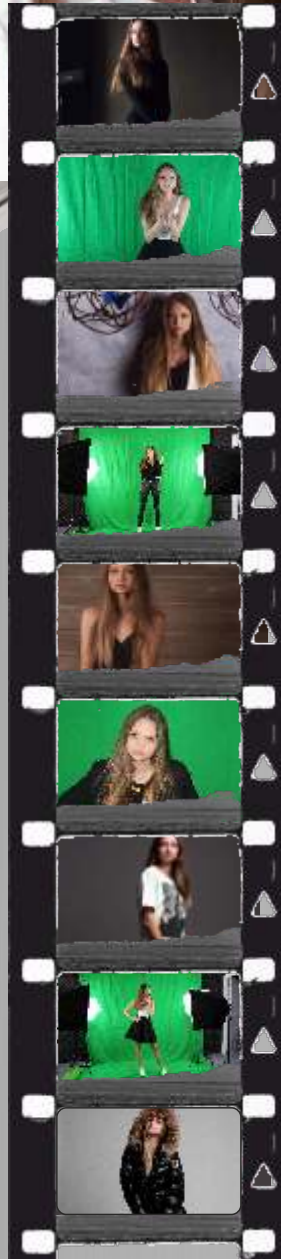

It is my opinion that Karisha is a highly talented young lady with a great future as a pop artiste. She sounds ahead of her years and should enjoy a happy and successful career.
